

School Education Gateway Support

Knowledgebase > Erasmus+ > Erasmus+ Tools > For course providers > Can I post a listing that is not related to school education?

Can I post a listing that is not related to school education?

Ismini - 2020-02-10 - For course providers

The School Education Gateway is aimed at the European school community. To keep the platform relevant to this community, we discourage listings related to other fields (higher education, vocational training, adult education) unless they are also connected and relevant to school education.