What are the editorial boards?

Jelena - 2021-01-04 - Online kurslar

The editorial boards ensure that some of the great work being produced in the course is curated and published, to provide recognition to its authors and to help a larger audience benefit from the great output being produced. Check out an example of the curation results here.

The editorial board will consist of a small group of participants who have demonstrated commitment and outstanding work during the course. The board reviews and rates user-generated course output which has been flagged as noteworthy, in order to make a selection of work which will be professionally edited, translated and then published on School Education Gateway.
